Re: CDLAC On-Line Application Implementation Reminder

As a reminder, the CDLAC On-line Application is now available for use for the December 2014 allocation round, with an application deadline date of October 10, 2014.

After receiving their On-line Application Registration letter (mailed the week of August 18th), CDLAC Applicants (Issuers) should register on-line to gain access to the On-line Application system. After doing so, Issuers will have the ability to grant individual application access to individual Project Sponsors and other project team members.

Effective the December 10th, 2014 allocation round, all Applicants utilizing the Standard QRRP Application format will be required to do so via the new On-line system. Only the Universal Application will remain available for hard copy submittal.
